

A WONDER CLOCK

Illinois Town Falls Heir To Time-piece, That Does Most Everything.

Aurora, Ill., June 19.—This city has what might be called the world's most wonderful clock. It is an ingenious piece of machinery that took forty years in the making. William Blandford, an 82-year-old Englishman, is the inventor. He died here recently after a residence of sixty years, most of which time was spent in perfecting the clock. On his death Mr. Blandford left the invention to the city of Aurora.

Among the things the clock does are:

Dispels astronomical claims that equasion of years could not be accomplished by machinery.

Has a calendar of 10,000 years—even the double leap years are provided for.

Time equasion—operates automatically.

Has an astronomical dial, requiring winding but once in sixty-eight years, or but fourteen times every thousand years.

Is expected to operate without impairment or attention for 5,000 years.

Has a calendar which registers the number and name of each day, each month and each year.

Gives the latitude east and west at 127 principal cities of the world, showing the time at any hour of the day or night in each.

Has an improved compensation pendulum which makes the clock accurate and is adjusted to normal temperature and automatically controlled by expansion and contraction as the result of changes in heat and cold.

Upper dial is governed by an eight-day movement.

Has a moon frame showing precisely the phases of the moon, changing automatically at each quarter.

Shows the earth and its revolutions around the sun, the time it enters the parallelism of the earth's axis, and the variations of the seasons.

Operated by two fifty-pound weights, capable of driving the mechanism for two months, when the weights are automatically rewound by an electric motor.

Has a thermometer and micrometer attachment showing the exact temperature within one-fifth degree Fahrenheit.

At night the several dials are automatically illuminated.

Blandford made the entire clock—structure, cabinet and mechanism. Beautifully carved, it stands nine feet in height, three feet in width and two feet in depth. The main dial is four feet in diameter.

Blandford was the son of an old English clockmaker. He came to this country in 1879 and located in Aurora, where he constructed this wonderful clock in a little workshop adjacent to his home. It was his dying wish that it remain in this city. Offers of purchase from cities and universities of the country have been declined by the city.

EVANSVILLE CHIEF GETS 2 YEARS FOR WET PLOT

Indianapolis, June 18.—Edgar Schmitt, chief of police of Evansville and alleged head of the 'whisky ring,' was sentenced to two years in the Atlanta Federal penitentiary and fined

$2,000 by Judge Anderson in Federal Court this afternoon for his activities in transporting liquor from Kentucky into Indiana.

The second heaviest sentence was given Fred Osenberg, Republican political boss, who was sentenced to one year and one day in the Federal penitentiary and fined $1,000.

Following sentencing of Schmitt the court said there would be a grand jury investigation of perjury in the case. He refused to permit Schmitt to give bond and ordered him taken to jail. Following are disposition of cases of others among the sixty-three men who were convicted or pleaded guilty:

Van Pickenell, former wholesale liquor dealer at Henderson, Ky., at whose place most of the transported whisky was bought, $2,000 fine. Pickenell testified, after pleading guilty, that he sold $350,000 worth of whisky to Indiana customers for illicit transportation and that he paid Police Chief Schmitt from $12,000 to $15,000 and Fred Osenberg $1,000 for protection.

Ell Harp, fisherman, who manned liquor boats, one day in jail; Clarence Wilhelm, boatman and alleged professional bootlegger, one day in jail; Otto Klein, former saloonkeeper and Republican politician, six months in jail and $100 fine; Richard Pennington, former saloonkeeper, who pleaded guilty to transporting thousands of dollars' worth of whisky to sell illegally in Evansville, $200 fine.

Surgeons agree that in cases of cuts, burns, bruises and wounds the first treatment is most important. When an efficient antiseptic is applied promptly, there is no danger of infection and the wound begins to heal at once. For use on man or beast, Borozone is the Ideal Antiseptic and healing agent. Buy it now and be ready for an emergency. Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $1.50. Sold by Ohio County Drug Co.

"ITSA HERR," GIRL BABY.

When Mr. and Mrs. Dougal Herr were called upon to file the certificate of their new baby at Caldwell, N. J., the name entered on the register was Itsa Herr. The parents wish more time to select a proper permanent name. Mrs. Herr is the niece of former Secretary of War Garrison.

If you have the itch, don't scratch. It does not cure the trouble and makes the skin bleed. Apply BAL-LARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. Rub it in gently on the affected parts. It relieves itching instantly and a few applications removes the cause thus performing a permanent cure. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Ohio County Drug Co.

SUGAR REPORT NOT SWEET.

The house committee which investigated the sugar situation made a report which holds the attorney-general guilty of fixing an unjustifiably high price for Louisiana sugar, without authority, and of 'giving immunity from prosecution' to sugar profiteers. A minority report declared that he did the right thing by helping out the Louisiana sugar planters. Thus the people are right where they were before, as far as learning any more about the matter is concerned.

CHILD TAGGED FOR TRIP

Tagged to his destination and insured for $25,000 against injury, loss or death a seven-year old boy, John Paul Jones, started on a 1,000-mile trip from Portsmouth, N. H., to his home at Sydney, O. John Paul was unaccompanied, and his insurance was for only three days.

CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She Is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Roysse City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Kilman, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl...my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me...but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery was unbearable...I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot... I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it... I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better. The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."

Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial.

Cut This Out And Take It With You

A man often forgets the exact name of the article he wishes to purchase, and as a last resort takes something else instead. That is always disappointing and unsatisfactory. The safe way is to cut this out and take it with you so as to make sure of getting Chamberlain's Tablets. You will find nothing quite so satisfactory for constipation and indigestion.
